

FRESNO- Congressman Jim Costa, D-Fresno, will hold a press availability today at 1:45 p.m. in the main passenger terminal at the Fresno-Yosemite International Airport.

The Fresno lawmaker will be available to comment on his plans for the forthcoming session of the 11^{0th} Congress, the passing of President Gerald Ford and other issues.

Following the press availability, Congressman Costa will depart for Washington, D.C. where he will be sworn in Thursday for his second term in Congress.

#